

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2220 - SB 2607

February 9, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Amends the "Governmental Entity Review Law" to provide that when the evaluation committee does not hold the required public hearing to hear testimony regarding a governmental entity that is due to expire, such entity will not expire for nine months from the date of its scheduled termination. Requires the chairs of the appropriate committees in both the house of representatives and the senate to certify to their respective speakers and the speakers to the governor any entity that does not receive a public hearing before its scheduled termination date.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Current law (T.C.A. 4-2-115) provides that any governmental entity that is scheduled to be terminated before the review by the evaluation committee is completed shall continue operations for an additional year after which it shall cease to exist without legislation.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "James A. Davenport".

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

HB 2220 - SB 2607